Registered Manager: Patricia Ward

House Profile: Arundel House is a home for 10 adults with a learning disability, epilepsy, autism and associated complexities. A committed and capable staff team work tirelessly to meet the needs of the residents at the home.

The newly refurbished house has been tastefully renovated with en suite baths, showers or wet rooms to all bedrooms with many additional communal facilities for the residents.

Frinton is a quiet, exclusive and discerning seaside resort. The town is ideal for walks along the coast in one of the UK's drier areas. The main street is tree-lined Connaught Avenue, which has been dubbed the Bond Street of East Anglia because of the haute couture fashion, wines and fine food available. There are several good restaurants and coffee shops. Other than this Frinton is best known for its magnificent seafront, greensward and sandy beach. There is a library, fine coastal walks, fishing, sailing or the chance to enjoy a round of golf, play cricket, cycle or ride a horse along the bridleways and lanes circling the town.
