

Maldon House

Red Nose Day Special

During a residents meeting in January 2011, several residents indicated that they would like to do a sponsored walk to raise money for charity.

As this year was comic relief residents were asked if they would like to do something for comic relief, and all were in agreement 'yes'

Maldon House

Aitch Care Home (London) limited aims to assist the residents to develop their independence, autonomy, knowledge, confidence and daily living skills in order to enable them to live a full and independent life as possible as a full part of the local community.

Aitch Care Home (London) limited aims to provide the highest standard of twenty-four hour therapeutic support, promoting independent thought and normalization within a calming and homely environment.

The promotion of choice, independence and autonomy through encouragement and empowerment is an integral part of the support planning. For each individual resident our primary aim is to implement a detailed, carefully planned package of support.

This is done using a multi-professional approach targeted to the individual needs and aspirations. Careful risk assessment, monitoring and review lie at the heart of this successful formula.

Aitch Care Homes (London) limited builds cohesive teams of talented, well trained staff to deliver these objectives in an enjoyable, relaxed and fully effective environment
