Overall rating of Maldon House -
 "Excellent" - CQC Inspection Report –
 November 2009

Registered Manager: Colin Scott

"An excellent service is provided at Maldon House by a hardworking and motivated management and staff team, backed by good administrative systems. Service users are supported to live full and active lives both in the home and in the local community. Physical standards throughout the property are very high." - CSCI Inspection Report - January 2006

House Profile: Maldon House is situated in Seaford within a short walk to the town and seafront. Seaford is equidistant between Brighton and Eastbourne with excellent rail and road connections to these two places. There is a leisure centre and a swimming pool, library and various churches in Seaford as well as a local college offering courses to residents.

Maldon House has a spacious lounge and conservatory, and a south facing garden with a sensory cabin. All 10 bedrooms have en-suite bath or shower rooms and three of the bedrooms are on the ground floor.

Maldon House can support people with a wide range of disabilities including epilepsy and autism and we are able to access a range of services from East Sussex including speech and language therapy and physiotherapy.
