ACH acquires Ivers in Dorset

Ivers at Marnhull (near Shaftesbury)

Ivers has provided residential care, day care and full education programmes to adults with a learning disability for the last 30 years, and is a great acquisition for ACH.

Set in four acres in the village of Marnhull (near Shaftesbury), Ivers' unique blend of 24 hour care and outstanding educational facilities provides a safe, purposeful and friendly environment for clients to progress.

ACH will be investing in and expanding Ivers, including a further eight individual studio flats within two on-site bungalows.

Sean wins Prestigious Award

Sean Anderson, who lives at Alderton House in Littleport, was one of six young people who won the Promote the Vote award at the People of the Year Awards of 2009. Promote the Vote have produced interactive workshops for their peers on voting and democracy, which has inspired hundreds to register to vote for the first time. Sean was presented with his award by John Bercow MP, 157th Speaker of the house of Commons.

Two New Homes Opening in 2010

Ambleside Lodge

In May 2010 ACH is opening Ambleside Lodge, which is a new 8 bed home in Redhill, Surrey. Then in October Melbury House will open in Farnborough, Hampshire. Set in two acres of grounds, Melbury House will consist of a variety of self contained flats, individual bedsits and fully en suite bedrooms. ACH will be building many extra facilities such as activity rooms, sensory facilities, games rooms, computer rooms and other communal facilities as yet to be determined.
