

Looking to the future - Setting new standards

ACH Care Homes - Sheringham House, Gravesend

"There is an open and friendly atmosphere in the home, which is well run around the needs of the people who live there. Staff listen to what residents want and are unhappy about and take action. People enjoy living in a clean, comfortable and homely house. They are able to make up their own minds about what they do. Staff understand what residents need and are well supervised by the manager." - CSCI Inspection Report - October 2006

Overall rating of Sheringham House - "Excellent" - CSCI Inspection Report - July 2008

Registered Manager: Mr Ian Pitman

House Profile: Sheringham House is an established home with 10 ensuite rooms for younger adults (both male and female) with mild to severe learning disabilities and complex needs, including Downs Syndrome, autistic spectrum disorders and epilepsy. As with all ACH homes, the house and large inviting garden have been meticulously refurbished to a very high standard, ensuring the best available facilities for our residents.
