ACH Care Homes - Woodbridge House, Gillingham

Registered Manager: Now Recruiting

House Profile: Woodbridge House is a light and spacious residential home situated in a peaceful residential road within walking distance of Gillingham town centre. The house is located near to local shops and amenities with excellent public transport links.

Woodbridge House opened in the Summer of 2006 and accommodates ten adults with mild to severe learning difficulties and associated complex needs, including Downs Syndrome, A.S.D and Epilepsy.

Woodbridge House is decorated, and maintained, to a high specification. All ten bedrooms are en-suite with either a bath or a wet room. The house also has the advantage of an additional large ground floor wet room. A lift is available to the first floor. A sensory room is also available. Woodbridge House has the benefit of a corner plot, so a spacious and secure garden is accessible for all residents.
